

As a citizen of the United States I feel this is an invvasion of my privacy.If a company or institution is allowed to contact me at my home without my consent I should be able to respond to the individual contacting me in the same manner.His personal home phone number should be transmitted to me in some form legible to me.